

Epiphany Anglican Church

The new church building will be dedicated in May 2013. More than 50 Protestant groups presently meet here, and they anticipate many more.

Roman Catholic Church of our Lady of the Rosary

The Roman Catholic Church seats 3000 people and offers multiple services in many different languages each week. Dedicated in 2008, it was the first church built in Qatar in 1,400 years.

St. Isaac and St. George Greek Orthodox Church

The Greek Orthodox Church presently meets in the basement of their yet unfinished sanctuary.

Coptic Church of St. Peter and St. Paul (Egyptian)

The Coptic Church, or Egyptian Christian Church, meets in a smaller building close by the beautiful church under construction. Completion should be in late 2013 or early 2014.

Malankara Syrian Orthodox Church

Malankara Orthodox Church is an ancient Church of India and it traces its origin to as far back as A. D. 52 when St. Thomas one of the disciples of Jesus Christ came to India and established Christianity in the South Western parts of the sub-continent.

Indian Christian Churches

The “Indian Christian Churches” building houses several Indian churches from the Kerala region of India. These faith communities are apostolic churches begun by St. Thomas in the first century.

