CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT STACY G. BURTON

Chief Master Sergeant Stacy G. Burton is the Chief Enlisted Manager of the 609th Air Operations Center, Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar. He is the senior enlisted advisor to the commander and staff on all issues regarding the welfare, readiness, morale, and proper utilization and development of the enlisted force. He assists the commander in managing the U. S. Air Forces Central Command's $110 million air, space, and cyber operations facility, and is involved in operational and strategic-level decisions influencing the management of operations and personnel assigned to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar and Shaw Air Force Base, South Carolina. The Combined Air Operations Center is comprised of over 850 Joint and Coalition personnel in 56 mission qualification positions tasked with planning and coordinating the Air Tasking Order and providing command and control of integrated air and missile defense of the Arabian Gulf and synchronizing Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coalition assets to conduct air, space, and cyber operations within a 4.3 million square mile area of responsibility covering Central and Southwest Asia.

Chief Master Sergeant Burton is a native of Somerset, Kentucky, and entered the Air Force in October 1998. He graduated from the Security Forces Apprentice course at Lackland Air Force Base in March 1999. In 2004, Chief Burton retrained into the Command and Control Battle Management Operations career field. His background includes duties at the tactical and operational level leadership roles. During his career, he has supported numerous campaigns including Operations IRAQI FREEDOM, FREEDOM'S SENTINEL, INHERENT RESOLVE, the Resolute Support mission and the Combined Defense of the Arabian Gulf.
